1. [REDACTED] the return to Rome (about [REDACTED]) from the United States of Hasan Dosti, chairman of the Committee for Free Albania, is significant in view of the intensified efforts of the Committee to bring about a revolt in Albania. It is believed that Dosti will remain in Rome for a prolonged period.*

2. The Committee is studying a means to effect total mobilization when necessary of all Albanian refugees militarily fit. [REDACTED] the Committee is also considering a plan to turn over to the Western powers the names of those who refuse to be mobilized on the grounds that they are Communists and opponents of the democratic system.
3. Recent information indicates that the various emigre committees of the satellite countries, which are organized under the aegis of the Free Europe Committee, will shortly be transformed into legal governments in exile. These governments would organize their compatriots abroad for military duty, institute a propaganda program directed at their homeland and organize intelligence services for military and political purposes.

* [REDACTED] Comment: Information [REDACTED] states that among Albanian circles in the United States, it is rumored that Dosti is trying desperately to emigrate to the United States, but that under the McCarran Act he will be excluded because of the fact that he served as Minister of Justice during the German occupation in Albania. [REDACTED] of this information, it is well-known that Dosti accepted this position on pressure from the Balli Kombetar, with the aim of fighting the rise of the Communists and of lessening the oppression of German occupation. It is said, [REDACTED] that Dosti had been asked by Midhat Frasheri to make this sacrifice for their country.
